

AMERICAN SLANG

SLANG:

jerga

a type of language that consists of words and phrases that are regarded as very informal, are more common in speech than writing, and are typically restricted to a particular context or group of people.

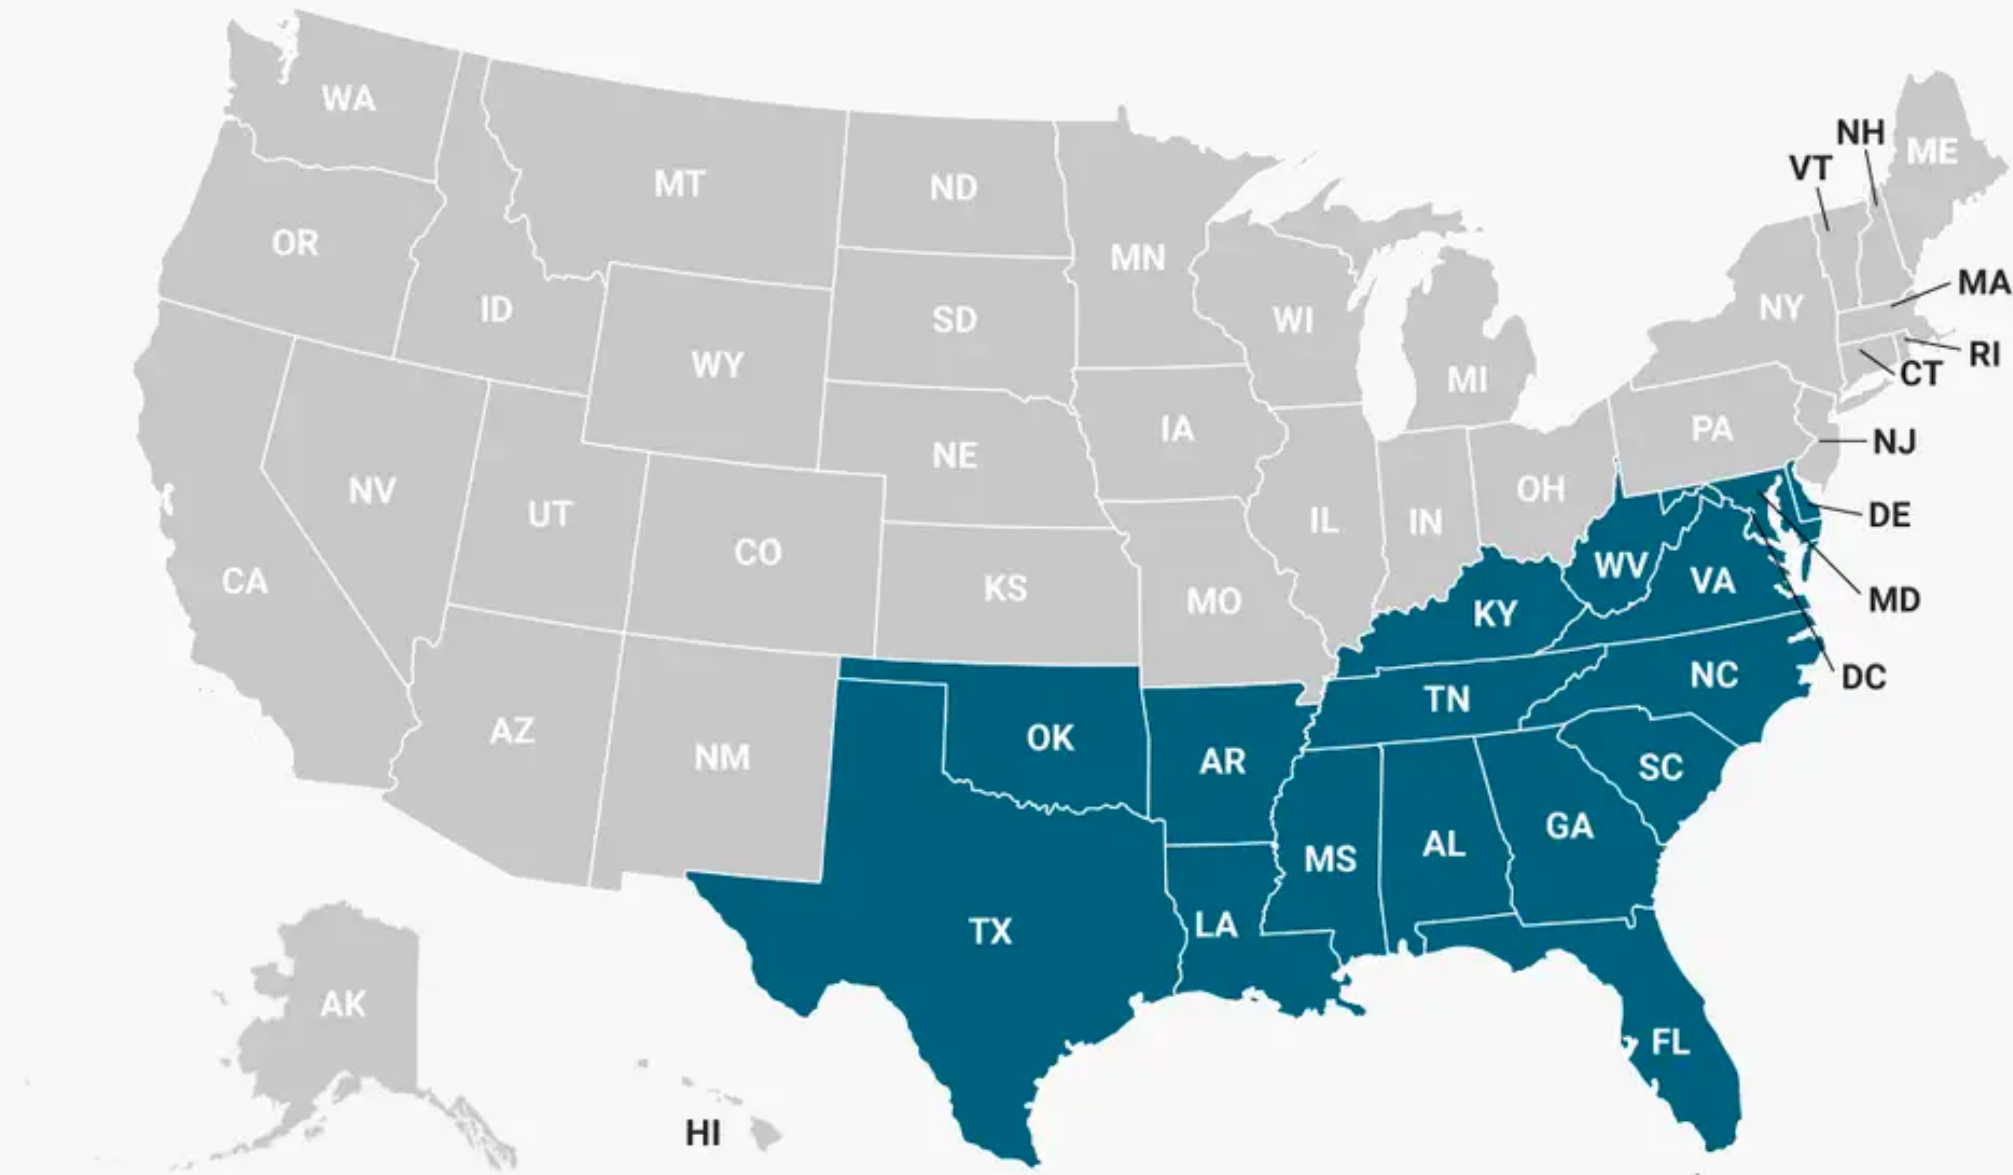

SOUTHERN SLANG

Region 3: South

Source: US Census Bureau

BUSINESS INSIDER

Morgan Wallen - One Thing At A Time (Lyric Video)

Share

One Thing
At A Time

Morgan
Wallen

Watch on  YouTube

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aKA4wH3Mg7Y>

Y'ALL

Y'ALL

“you all”

(vosotros)

SOUTHERN SLANG

What do y'all want to do tonight?

HOWDY

HOWDY

“hello”

(Hola - informal)

Howdy guys, how is it going?

FIXIN' TO FIXIN' TO

“about to”

(a punto de)

I'm fixin' to start making dinner.

RECKON

RECKON

“believe”

(creer)

I reckon it is going to snow today.

AIN'T

AIN'T

“Is not/ Are not”

(no es)

You ain't going to school today.

ALL OF THE US

HEY/HI

HEY / HI

“Hello”

(Hola - Informal)

Hey, what are you doing?

BRO/DUDE

BRO/DUDE

“Friend”

(tio)

How's it going bro/dude?

BUCK

BUCK

“money”

(dinero)

It costs 20 bucks.

CHILL

CHILL

“relax/calm down”

(tranquilo)

You need to chill.

COOL

COOL

“amazing/ interesting”

(interessante)

Those shoes are so cool.

MY BAD

MY BAD

“I’m Sorry/ it’s my fault”

(lo siento/ culpa mio)

Sorry I hit you; it's my bad.

WHAT'S UP

WHAT'S UP

“How are you”

(que pasa)

I haven't seen you in a while, what's up?

